Risks of unencrypted email communication

For more information on the risks associated with transmitting information by unencrypted email, visit wsib.ca/email.

Cancelling or changing email authorization

It is the business' responsibility to properly manage consent for us to share information with them. The business is responsible for notifying us of any change to email authorization. To cancel or change email authorization on an account, please email employeraccounts@wsib.on.ca.

Providing email authorization

Only an authorized officer of the business (i.e., an individual within the company who would normally have access to, and control of, the information to be released) can provide email authorization for the business.

For more information, please refer to our Authorization of Employer Representatives for Employer Accounts policy.

Third-party representation or access

If the business wants to use a third-party representative for business account issues or provide company-related information to the representative, they must complete the Authorization for access to business account information form.

Please visit wsib.ca or call us at 1-800-387-0750, Monday to Friday, 7:30 a.m. to 7:45 p.m., for more information.
